the government, earlier this week, had decided to extend the hours of operations for shops and shopping complexes in the 36 cities and towns by three hours from Friday. With this extension, shops can remain open from 9 am to 6 pm.

ates eight buildings

8.20 crore.

The five new ST workshops, whose foundation stone was laid virtually by the CM include Dwarka, Morbi, Wankaner, Virpur and Sardhar. Different ministers in the state government had attended different venues in person. These workshops will be built at the cost of Rs 15.52 crore.

Virtually addressing the functions, CM Rupani said that the state transport service is a means of serving the people of the state and not that of making profit.

He also congratulated the employees of GSRTC for the role played by them in natural calamities like cyclone or flood and evacuation of people to safety.

Rupani said that the GSRTC is providing public transport service to around 25 lakh people daily covering 99 per cent of rural areas of the state.
